

TRM Weep & Vent

PRODUCT OVERVIEW

TRM Weep and Vent is a pre-made vent specially designed for brick homes during the installation phase. Each weep and vent must be inserted by the mason as they are placing the mortar. When used as a weep, TRM Weep and Vent Barrier should be installed horizontally (1.5" side vertical) every 24" O.C. or at every head joint or as specified. It must be installed on top of the flashing. The bottom of the cavity must be protected by an approved cavity protection systems for mortar droppings.

- For new construction only, cannot be retro-fitted.
- Each weep measures 3/8" x 1.5" x 4" rectangular PETG plastic frame a stainless steel mesh screen with 0.017" openings is melt-bonded to the plastic frame.
- Termite and Insect physical barrier.

Companion Products

TRM Sealant

TRM Micromesh

TRM Particle Barrier

REV121624